

Key Term Crossword

Across

1. A reason based on known facts to think that a law has been broken or that a property is connected to a criminal offense.
3. A suspicion based on facts or circumstances that justifies stopping and sometimes searching an individual thought to be involved in illegal activity.
5. A Supreme Court measure that considers constitutionality on whether a reasonable person would feel free to terminate an encounter with law enforcement personnel.
7. The collecting by police officers of potential evidence in a criminal case.
9. A term that describes two distinct behaviors on the part of law enforcement officers in dealing with suspects. To conduct a lawful frisk, the stop itself must meet the legal conditions of a seizure. A frisk constitutes a search.
11. A temporary detention that legally is a seizure of an individual and must be based on reasonable suspicion.
12. The right and the power to commit an act or order others to commit an act.
14. Refers to the fact that police work is mostly easily observed by the public and that police are accountable to the public, police supervisors, and legislatures.
15. The power of a criminal justice official to make decisions on issues within legal guidelines.
2. An incident in which police officers physically restrain a person and restrict his or her freedom.
4. Law that specifies how the criminal justice system is allowed to deal with those who break the law.
6. An incident in which police show a sign of authority (such as flashing a badge), and the suspect submits.
8. Suspicion of illegal activity based on a person's race, ethnicity, or national origin rather than on actual illegal activity or evidence of illegal activity.
10. An investigation of an area and/or person by a police officer to look for evidence of criminal activity.
13. The area under the control of an individual during an arrest in an automobile.

Down

