

Key Term Crossword

A crossword puzzle grid with 20 numbered starting points for key terms. The grid consists of 15 columns and 20 rows. The numbered starting points are:

- 1: Row 1, Column 3 (10 letters)
- 2: Row 1, Column 5 (10 letters)
- 3: Row 1, Column 13 (10 letters)
- 4: Row 1, Column 14 (10 letters)
- 5: Row 5, Column 1 (10 letters)
- 6: Row 5, Column 2 (3 letters)
- 7: Row 7, Column 1 (10 letters)
- 8: Row 8, Column 6 (5 letters)
- 9: Row 9, Column 3 (8 letters)
- 10: Row 9, Column 4 (5 letters)
- 11: Row 11, Column 4 (5 letters)
- 12: Row 12, Column 6 (10 letters)
- 13: Row 13, Column 2 (10 letters)
- 14: Row 14, Column 5 (5 letters)
- 15: Row 15, Column 3 (10 letters)
- 16: Row 16, Column 6 (5 letters)
- 17: Row 16, Column 7 (5 letters)
- 18: Row 18, Column 6 (5 letters)
- 19: Row 19, Column 1 (10 letters)
- 20: Row 20, Column 4 (10 letters)

Across

1. The rate of ex-offenders who commit new offenses and are returned to prison.
7. Correcting the offender's behavior and giving him or her the skills and ability to survive in society without violating the law.
10. State or federal institution that confines people convicted of crime who are serving sentences for longer than a year.
12. Minor criminal offense punishable by a fine and/or jail time for up to one year.
15. The total removal of legal prohibitions on specific acts that were previously proscribed and punishable by law.
18. Action taken by a person or a group of people that violates the rules of society to the point that someone is harmed or society's interests are harmed.
19. The power of a criminal justice official to make decisions on issues within legal guidelines.
20. Suspension of all or part of a sentence subject to certain conditions and supervision in the community.

Down

2. The policy of removing mentally ill people from public mental-health institutions and closing part or all of those institutions.

3. Emendation of laws or statutes to lessen or remove penalties for specific acts subject to criminal prosecution, arrest, and imprisonment.
4. Sentences determined by law that establish the minimum length of prison time that may be served for an offense.
5. The increased reliance on incarceration, surveillance, and law enforcement in the United States and its relationship to the establishment of for-profit incarceration and probation/parole services, and businesses that supply goods and services to prisons and jails.
6. Secure facility that typically holds arrestees, criminal suspects, and inmates serving sentences less than a year.
8. The use of information technology to analyze vast amounts of data to allow law enforcement to better target their resources toward potential crime.
9. The theft or taking of money or property by a person who is charged by an employer or other authority to be responsible for those assets.
11. A law signed by President George W. Bush on October 26, 2001, in response to the terror attacks of September 11, 2001.
13. Reason based on known facts to think that a law has been broken or that a property is connected to a criminal offense.