Chapter 2: Sounds and Sound Change in English

The website of the International Phonetic Association:

https://www.internationalphoneticassociation.org/redirected_home

Peter Ladefoged's online version of his books A Course in Phonetics (5th edn.) and Vowels and Consonants (2nd edn.), providing a wealth of material on English phonology, including pronunciations:

<https://www.internationalphoneticassociation.org/>

A useful tutorial for phonemic transcription (prepared by Henry Rogers and Michael Stairs):
<http://homes.chass.utoronto.ca/~stairs/phthong/>

Joshua Rudder's introduction to phonetics:

<http://www.nativlang.com/linguistics/ipa-pronunciation-lessons.php>

A classic poem (by Gerard Noist Trenité) exemplifying the many ways in which English vowels may be spelled in English:

<http://ncf.idallen.com/english.html>

The blog of the well-known British phonetician, John Wellss:

<http://www.phonetic-blog.blogspot.ca>
